PERFORMANCE SUMMARY

Arjun's overall academic performance is currently below average, primarily impacted by a critically low attendance rate of 60%. However, his consistent baseline scores across subjects suggest that increased classroom engagement will lead to significant improvement.

STRENGTHS

- Shows relative strength and interest in Social Studies and Science.
- Maintains a balanced performance baseline without drastically failing any subject.
- Demonstrates foundational potential that can be built upon with regular study.

IMPROVEMENT AREAS

- Classroom attendance requires immediate and drastic improvement.
- Core problem-solving skills in Mathematics need foundational strengthening.
- English language comprehension and writing skills require extra practice.

RECOMMENDATIONS

- Target a minimum of 85% attendance for the next term to stay updated with coursework.
- Establish a daily 1.5-hour home study routine focused on Mathematics and English revision.
- Participate in remedial classes or peer-learning groups to bridge concept gaps.

CAREER GUIDANCE

With improved consistency, Arjun's relative aptitude in Social Studies and Science could lead to viable paths in Humanities, Mass Communication, or Vocational Applied Sciences.

OVERALL INSIGHT

Drastically improving classroom attendance is the primary catalyst required for Arjun to unlock his full academic potential.
